

LIFESTYLE

Four-time PGA Tour winner Duffy Waldorf has more than 1,800 bottles in his wine collection. Here's his monthly pick.

2005 75 Amber Knolls Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon

Price: $19

Origin: Northern California

Tastes like: "It's smooth and light in color, yet full-bodied with classic Cabernet flavors (cherries, cranberries, roses)."

Drink it with: Steak, or even chicken.

Duffy says: "This time of year reminds me of Pebble Beach, where I've played a dozen Tour events and two U.S. Opens—and where it can feel like winter any month of the year. This wine hails from nearby Lake County, just north of San Francisco, and is a bargain at less than $20. It's one of the first bottles I'll grab to share with friends on a chilly evening."

Tip Jar

"Some wine buffs lose sleep deciding which wines to pair with which foods. You shouldn't. If you're drinking a wine you enjoy, it'll taste great with any meal."

GOLF.COM

GOLF MAGAZINE

March 2008

Four-time PGA Tour winner Duffy Waldorf has more than 1,800 bottles in his wine collection. Here's his monthly pick:

2005 75 Amber Knolls Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon

"It's smooth and light in color, yet full-bodied with classical Cabernet flavors (cherries, cranberries, roses)."

"This time of year reminds me of Pebble Beach, where I've played a dozen Tour events and two US Opens—and where it can feel like winter any month of the year. This wine hails from nearby Lake County just north of San Francisco. It's one of the first bottles I'll grab to share with friends on a chilly evening."